

DAPHNE MAXWELL REID

Daphne Maxwell Reid is best known as Aunt Vivian from the hit comedy, "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air". Her 40-year acting career is still vital with roles on many new television programs including as the host of "Virginia Currents" on Richmond's WCVE (PBS).

Presently serving on the following boards, her involvement in the community at large rounds out a full schedule; Virginia Foundation For The Humanities Board, the Petersburg Area Art League Board, and the Citizens' Action Commission for the Governor's Mansion.

Daphne Maxwell Reid is an avid photographer of DOORS from around the world and is exhibiting and selling her collection entitled "Daphne Maxwell Reid's Fresh Prints®" at speaking engagements, art gatherings and on her website: <http://www.DaphneMaxwellReid.com>. Four beautifully published books of photographs, "DOORS", "Opening Closed Doors: Cuba 2015", "Belgium: Doors Old & New", and "France", (accounts of her worldwide journeys to capture the portals) are available on her website. Also available on the website, "Grace, Soul & Motherwit: A Cookbook Spiced With Personal Memories", which was 36 years in the making!

In keeping with her desire to express all facets of her creativity, Daphne has launched her limited edition, wearable art collection: Chinese silk brocade "toppers" called Daphne Style. She is exhibiting the two current style collections at fashion shows from Virginia to Las Vegas to New York. Yes, she custom makes them all herself. Have you ordered yours?
